About Coach Rood: From his first match as a sophomore at Kittanning High School to his retirement as Head Coach of Wrestling at Cranberry High School, Steven Bruce "Coach" Rood lived and breathed wrestling. The sport was in his blood, but athletic ability was only a small part of Coach Rood. Coach valued sportsmanship, dedication, honesty, and fairness far more than ability. To Coach, trying was as important as doing. He measured success in terms of effort and integrity. Coach valued running for the fitness of his wrestlers as well as his personal daily life.

The Coach Rood Memorial Scholarship is available to graduating seniors from high schools located in Venango County planning to attend an educational institution of vocational and technical professions. Applicants exhibiting the characteristics of leadership, service, dedication, and sportsmanship that Coach Rood envisioned for his students are highly favored for the annual scholarship award. To apply for or donate to the scholarship, please visit Bridge Builders Community Foundations on the internet at (www.bridgebuilderscommunityfoundations.org).
